Service so thorough we'll even pronounce the name for you. In 1927 American aviator, Charles A. Lindbergh astounded the world by landing at the Le Bourget Aéroport after a solo, nonstop transatlantic flight. He was met with the warmest reception the world has ever known. In 2005 the spirit of Le Bourget came back to Minnesota.

Welcome to a hotel that will transport you and provide you exceptional service that is reminiscent of a time long past. Le Bourget embraces the historic Parisian reception of Lindberg. Set in an energetic Minnesota location our facility offers many amenities in a style that exceeds the expected — all for an affordable price.
